

HAPPY'S CIRCUS

Friday 4th July - Fayre from 4:30pm

Non-Uniform Day – bring a bottle for the Tombola – 2p Trail Day

The Circus is coming to Aldryngton!

Following their enormously entertaining visit in 2012 Happy's Circus are bringing their traditional all-human show to our school once again – with an all-new fun packed programme featuring British and international artistes. It's the show of the year – just ask anyone who was there last time!

Happy the Clown himself comes from a family of circus entertainers and is the recipient of two prestigious international Clown Awards. It was over 20 years ago that he produced his first Circus Show as a member of his school PTA.

There's More Than Just The Big Top

All the fun of the Fayre beforehand

Shittles ~ Coconut Shy

Fayre games ~ Face Painting

Upper School Stalls ~ Raffle

Ice-Cream ~ BBQ ~ Licensed Bar

The 84th Reading Scout Group will be running the barbeque, taking orders for interval burgers as well as serving food before the show. The Bar will remain open throughout the show.

Gates open 4:30 pm for all the Fun of the Fair! – Big Top opens 5:30 pm

Show starts 6:00 pm – Interval of 30 minutes at 6:45 pm – Show ends 8:00 pm

Ticket Prices: Individual £7 - Family (4) £25

Tickets can be purchased from the playground before school from Monday 24th June. The table will be there every day from 24th June until circus day Friday 4th July.

Children will not be allowed to attend unsupervised, all children must be accompanied by an adult or come in a group with a responsible adult in charge. Under twos free if sitting on an adult's lap.

Admission to the field is free - only ticket holders may enter the big top.

Bring a bottle for the tombola

In return for a donation towards the bottle tombola Friday 4th July will be a non-uniform day.

2p trail day

Once again we are hoping to completely circle the school buildings with 2p coins, let's give it a go!